First Wall Sections Completed

On Saturday, October 10 volunteers gathered at 'the barn' in Mills River, NC and the first of many wall sections for Granger Baptist Church and Agua Viva Church were completed. In this photo, Glen Knorr is working on a wall section for Granger Baptist.

This wall section is for Agua Viva church. Unseen is the scripture verses written on the studs - in Spanish! Bryan Jackson is holding a sign that says Estas Listo. If his translation is correct, in English this says Are You Ready? More photos...

Just Give Me a $1.00

God told us in His word that He would supply our every need. Bryan Jackson, Blessed Hands Building Team Director mentioned to a building materials supplier that he needed materials for a church. The supplier took Bryan outside to the lumber yard and pointed to a pile of OSB plywood and said, "Can you use that?" It was 34 sheets of OSB wall siding. "How much?" asked Bryan. "Since it's for a church, how about a $1."

Car Wash Ministry Launched

One Saturday, a group of Experiencing God Through Missions Inc volunteers were holding a car wash to raise funds for Wyoming Mission 2009. As they were washing the last car for the day, the driver happened to mention that he was getting married in about an hour. They learned that he was a Christian and asked if they could pray with him. He agreed so the volunteers formed a circle and prayed for this man, his new bride and their future life.

Later, God impressed upon the heart of one of the volunteers that the car washing should be a ministry. Now, each time a car is washed, the driver receives a gift bag containing a salvation bracelet, an Invitation CD by Rick Warren and a package of light bulbs with powerful gospel presentation attached.
