How Sweet It Is by Wayne Smith

Old timers will remember the "How Sweet It Is" line from the Jackie Gleason show called the Honeymooners. A friend and I compared our past lives. Both of us saved as teenagers; then like the prodigal son, wandered away from our fellowship with Jesus and lived in the 'pig pen' of the world. Thankfully, God called us back to serve Him. How Sweet It Is! If you can't say that about your life, maybe it's time for you to start your trip back home. Your Heavenly Father will welcome you with open arms. Never more will you want to roam and you too will say How Sweet It Is!

Team Ministries

The Bible teaches that each Christian has been given a unique gift. We believe that each person should be allowed and encouraged to use his/her gift. EGTMInc is a combination of gifted teams focused on a common cause - spreading evangelism using their 'tools.' Each team is anxious to 'export' the use of their gifts to conservative evangelical churches and Christian organizations. The gospel needs to be spread rapidly - let's use the disciples proven example - networking! Watch the EGTMInc Newsletter & website for more information.

Transmitter Needed

Southwestern Wyoming has very little, if any, Christian broadcasting. Gary Brantley, Pastor of Granger Baptist Church says that is going to change. He is planning on installing a Christian station inside his church! If you are knowledgeable concerning radio broadcasting, licensing or know of equipment availability, please give Gary a call at (307) 825-1837 or email: garysherrybrantley@hughes.net

The Nehemiah Story - Part One

When newcomers hear the Experiencing God Through Missions (EGTMInc) story, usually their first response is "you are different." They are correct. EGTMInc is different. We don't do ministry like Disaster Relief, nor do we do ministry like Samaritans Purse, or any other ministry that we know of. The reason we don't is simple. The other ministries are doing their 'thing', the way God called them. Since they are doing a good job, why would God ... more
